

11 KILLED AT FORT MONROE

Gun Breech Blows Out in One of the Batteries

DURING TARGET PRACTICE

One Man Blown Into Chesapeake—Wives and Children of the Victims Witness Slaughter—Many Injured, One Fatally.

Fort Monroe, Va., July 22.—Ten arti-lerymen are dead and several others seriously injured, including two officers, as the result of the blowing out of a breech block in a 12-inch shore gun at the De Russy battery during the coast artillery practice here yesterday.

The accident occurred while student officers were endeavoring to sink a fleet of towed targets, representing an imaginary hostile fleet proceeding toward Washington. This battery was under the immediate command of Sergt. Haas of the Sixty-ninth company, United States coast artillery. The known dead are:

Haas, Harry G., sergeant.
Bradford, Albert, corporal.
Adams, Charles O., corporal.
Duffy, Roy, private.
Chadwick, John W., private.
King, Cleve W., private.
Smith, Alfred W., private.
Sullivan, Andy J., private.
Turner, James H., private.
Dey, H. A., private.
Probably fatally injured: Artie Adgey.
Slightly injured: Second Lieut. George L. Van Deusen, privates Orville T. Rainey, Ellsworth Hoffman, Charles E. Parks and William G. Subberger.
Private Smith was from New York.
One private was blown into Chesapeake bay with the breech block.
Lieut. Van Deusen sustained a broken leg and Lieut. Hawes was injured about the face.

Many prominent officers of the army and navy, who went to Hampton Roads to witness what was expected to be the greatest target practice of this character that had been attempted anywhere, saw the accident.

It was the more horrible for the reason that wives and children of several of the men killed, no danger having been anticipated, were permitted to see the target practice. A number of them witnessed the accident.

An official report says the explosion was the result of a premature ignition of powder charge.

The Russy battery, where the explosion occurred, was located in about the middle of the fort and was equipped with three 12-inch disappearing rifles of mounted design. It was named after Brigadier General G. A. De Russy, who served with distinction in the Civil war and died in 1891.

The battery was manned by the entire strength of the Sixty-ninth company, which was about 105 men, distributed among the three rifles. About twenty-two men were in each firing squad and were stationed upon the emplacement of the guns, the others being below in the magazines.

According to officials of the coast artillery, the firing tests were to be conducted on a larger scale than had ever been attempted anywhere. It was planned to have five batteries of 10 and 12-inch guns concentrate their fire on the target fleet and demolish it as quickly as possible. It was intended also to bring the mortars into play. Ships of the coast artillery were to tow the targets. Each was thirty feet high and sixty feet long and represented a section of the battleship.

Thirty officers, who have recently been graduated from the artillery school at Fortress Monroe, were to be in charge of the tests.

Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, remained in Washington, but a large number of other officers came down to see the firing.
Among them were Brigadier General William Crozier, chief of ordnance; Brigadier General James B. Aleshire, quartermaster general; Brigadier General William L. Bixby, the new chief of engineers, and many of the general staff.

BEEF COMPETITION A "FARCE."

"Independents" Shown To Be In With Trust In New Jersey, It Is Said.

Chicago, July 22.—That "trade agreements" exist between the supposedly independent wholesale meat dealers of New Jersey and the "beef trust," and that their outward competition between the special "beef trust" grand jury Wednesday. The information was gained after a grueling examination of seven eastern "independent" packers by Mr.
Kenyon, assistant attorney general, and his aide. It developed, it is said, that a complete understanding existed between the trust and the "independents," and that prices were established by them.

"Conditions are just as rotten in New Jersey as they are in Chicago," a government official said. "Competition is a farce and the trust has everything its own way." The witnesses who came from the East and South to testify, were Messrs. I. Heilbrunn, William Errett, Henry Blaine and E. Heilbrunn of Jersey City, and N. Godley and W. L.
Godley of Savannah, Ga. Probably the most important witness was Moses H.
Joseph, secretary of the New York Butchers' Dressed Beef association, a concern which the National Packing company got control of shortly after its organization. Mr. Joseph's father, Frederick Joseph, is president of the concern, and another brother is connected with it. Joseph was on the stand practically the entire morning, and was questioned closely regarding the methods by which the National Packing company got control of the association. Many records of the company were taken into the grand jury room to be examined by the jury. Arthur Colby, assistant treasurer of the National Packing company, and four other officers and employees of the $15,000,000 corporation, were in conference with the district attorney, Mr.

Sims, in the morning and later Mr. Colby went before the grand jury.

Wholesale meat dealers from eastern cities testified before the special grand jury, now investigating the workings of the so-called "beef trust." The men who went before the grand jury were F. S.
Driscoll and Bradbury Robinson of Boston, and Clifford Dyer of Portland, Me.
It is said that they were questioned regarding their knowledge of the workings of the Chicago packing companies in their own cities.

CALL LENEVE

GIRL SUICIDE

Young Woman Who Kills Herself In Bourges Believed to Be Dr. Crippen's Typist.

Bourges, France, July 22.—A young woman who committed suicide at a hotel here on July 13, is now believed to have been Ethel Clara LeNeve, the companion of Dr. Crippen. There are striking points of resemblance. The woman was a foreigner and gave the name of Jeanne Marie. The police of Paris and London have been notified.

Much mystery has surrounded the suicide. Although posing as a French woman it was recognized that the guest, who arrived at the hotel shortly before she killed herself, was not of French birth.

When the lifeless body was discovered in her room every effort was made to determine her identity or to get some trace of her friends but without success. The suicide was probably about 25 years of age, rather slight in build and of prepossessing appearance.

Nothing could be learned regarding her antecedents and the matter was dropped by the police only to be revived yesterday when the authorities received from Scotland Yard photographs of Miss LeNeve, Crippen's typist, who disappeared from London the day that the police lost track of her employer.

Those who had seen the body recognized in the likeness a remarkable similarity and directed the attention of the police to the probability that the suicide and Miss LeNeve were one. Further inquiry strengthened this theory and the local officials telegraphed their discovery to the police of Paris and to Scotland Yard.

DR. CRIPPEN PAWNED GEMS.

Some of Belle Elmore's Jewelry Recovered by Police.

London, July 21.—Press dispatches bring the report that Miss LeNeve is thought to have committed suicide at Bourges, France. Scotland Yard is without information on this point. The police yesterday discovered a small amount of jewelry which Dr. Crippen pawned before he disappeared.

The police have been disposed to believe that Miss LeNeve met with foul play. They cannot otherwise account for her silence. There is no charge against the young woman and the authorities have been anticipating that she would communicate with them as soon as she was aware of the hue and cry of Dr. Crippen.

Circumstantial reports were about yesterday afternoon to the effect that Crippen and Miss LeNeve had been arrested in Wales, but like scores of other rumors their truth was denied by Superintendent as soon as they were circulated.

Miss Crippen's jewelry was missed after her disappearance and according to the police, Crippen carried it away. A round-up of the pawn shops resulted in the discovery of a few of the jewels yesterday.

CORONATION IN JUNE, 1911.

Officers-at-Arms Proclaim Date of Ceremony.

London, July 22.—The picturesque ceremony attendant upon the accession of King George was re-enacted yesterday when the various officers of arms proclaimed his majesty's pleasure that the coronation of the king and queen take place in June, 1911, on a day to be later ascertained.

Sir Alfred Scott Scott-Gatty, garter king of arms, mounted the colonnade of the Priory court in St. James' palace and read the royal proclamation.
Grouped about him were the officers of arms and the high bailiff of Westminster and the life guards. The duke of Connaught and others of the royal family looked on from Marlborough house.
